The Peking Acrobats

For over 30 years, The Peking Acrobats have pushed the boundaries and redefined perceptions of acrobatics. They perform daring feats using props to show their technical abilities, like trick-cycling, juggling and gymnastics. The acrobats are part of a Chinese tradition that is historically and culturally rooted in centuries of Chinese art. They often perform alongside live musicians who play traditional Chinese instruments, melding folk-art tradition alongside contemporary technology. February 18. 2 pm. Yardley Hall.
